Students in our graduate degree programs must have a high level of English proficiency in reading, writing, speaking, and listening. The required minimum scores are 100 iBT (TOEFL) or 7.0 (IELTS). Most admitted students have scores above the required minimum. .

Unless both of the exceptions listed below apply, applicants must submit official, current TOEFL or IELTS scores as an integral part of their application. English proficiency test scores must be sent directly from the testing institutions to the Law School (institution code for TOEFL: 1839). If applicants have taken multiple tests, copies of all results must be submitted.

Exceptions

Applicants for whom BOTH of the conditions below apply are not required to submit TOEFL or IELTS scores:

- (i) residents of Australia, Canada (other than Quebec), New Zealand, Ireland, the United Kingdom, or the United States (other than Puerto Rico) AND
- (ii) completed a rigorous full-time program of at least three years of post-secondary education in one of those countries

Optional

For law school applicants who wish to supplement their standardized English test scores: InitialView offers unscripted interviews with native English speakers who completed their university education in the United States. This allows applicants to converse in a live setting about their unique backgrounds and goals, and to further demonstrate their listening and speaking skills in English. InitialView will send a recording of the interview to the participating law schools indicated by the applicants, as additional material for review.

For further information, please contact InitialView at www.initialview.com.

VII. STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

The University of Michigan Law School has long understood that enrolling students with a broad range of perspectives and experiences generates a vibrant culture of comprehensive debate and discussion, and we view our student body as one of our richest resources. The wide-ranging and challenging conversations of our diverse student body, inside and outside the classroom, enrich the quality of our community's intellectual life and enhance the quality of the legal education here.

Please use your Statement of Purpose as an opportunity to introduce yourself to the Law School and to elaborate on your career goals. It is most helpful if you provide information regarding your interests and career goals which is not readily available in your résumé. Special insights in your personal, educational or professional history, as well as significant non-law activities are also welcome.

For ease of reading, please use double-spacing and at least an 11-point font, limiting the essay to a maximum of three pages.

VIII. ELIGIBILITY FOR IN-STATE TUITION

In-state status for tuition and admissions purposes is determined by criteria set forth in the University's Guidelines for Qualifying for In-State Tuition, which can be found, along with the application for in-state tuition, at www.ro.umich.edu/resreg.php. Questions pertaining to your in-state status should be addressed to the staff of the Residency Classification Office, University of Michigan Office of the Registrar, LS&A, Suite 5000, 500 South State Street, Ann Arbor, MI 48109-1382, phone number 734-764-1400.

- You are 24 years of age or younger and a parent lives outside of Michigan.
- You previously attended any U-M campus (Ann Arbor, Dearborn, or Flint) as a nonresident.
- Other circumstances may also require you to file a residency application.

IX. CONDUCT

While answering the two questions below, when in doubt, err on the side of full disclosure, as the failure to fully answer any question may result in exclusion from law school. If, after completion of this application but prior to matriculation, any matters arise which would require you to answer yes to either question, supplement your application with complete details. Note that an affirmative answer to either question does not necessarily preclude or even prejudice admission. Your answers will be reviewed on an individual basis in relation to all aspects of your experience, academic achievement, and potential. You must submit a supplementary statement with any affirmative responses; provide complete details, including dates and resolution.

Have you ever been subject to disciplinary action for academic or other reasons in any of the colleges, universities, graduate, or professional schools you have attended, or are such charges pending or expected to be brought against you?

Yes No

Have you ever been convicted of a crime (following a jury or bench trial, a guilty plea, or a nolo contendere plea), or charged with a criminal offense that was later dismissed as a result of a plea bargain or alternative sentencing arrangement, or are such criminal charges pending or expected to be brought against you? Include misdemeanors and criminal infractions, as well as any interaction with a law enforcement agency that resulted in payment of a fine or order of community service. Do not include minor traffic violations or civil infractions or citations for which jail time was not a potential penalty.

Yes No

X. RACE AND ETHNICITY

(Optional) The information requested below is optional and will not be used in the admissions process. It is collected to comply with state and federal reporting requirements, as well as for statistical purposes. Your answer, or decision not to answer, will have no bearing on the Law School's admission decision.

law.macl.admissions@umich.edu

Name of Applicant: _____
Last (family) Name First (given) Name Middle Name

TO THE APPLICANT:

The Law School requires two letters of recommendation, in English, at least one of which must be from a member your employer/ work supervisor. You are welcome to submit additional letters of recommendation. Please complete this section of the form and forward it to each of your recommenders. Ask each recommender to complete the lower part and send this form, together with the letter of recommendation, directly to the University of Michigan Law School.

Federal legislation gives students in attendance at the Law School the right to inspect and review the letter(s) of recommendation contained in their educational records, unless that right is waived and the student or the applicant consents to the letter(s) remaining confidential between the Law School and the writer. All letters of recommendation, whether written in confidence or not, are carefully considered as part of the admissions decision. You alone must decide whether or not to waive your rights.

Letters of recommendation are most helpful when they contain candid and objective assessments of an applicant. The Law School believes that the writer of a recommendation should know prior to writing it whether it will be held in confidence. For this reason, we request that you:

1. indicate in the space provided below whether you wish to waive your right to inspect the letter,
2. show this statement with the completed portion indicating your decision to the writer before the recommendation is written, and
3. request the writer to complete the acknowledgment, also provided below, and attach this form (with both parts completed) to the letter of recommendation before sending it to the Law School.

I hereby waive the right to examine this recommendation as provided by law.

I do not waive the right to examine this recommendation as provided by law.
